

SQA Advanced Diploma

SQA English Language

Entry Requirement

Start your SQA Advanced Diploma journey by taking the Skills for English Test which has been developed and quality-assured by SQA in partnership with PSI - a global provider of assessment services, leading-edge technology and talent management solutions.

All students entering Year 1 of the SQA Advanced Diploma in China must meet SQA's English language requirements. You can now meet these requirements by taking the Skills for English Test.

Find your closest test centre in China and book your Level B1 test. You must achieve a minimum of a Level B1, covering all four skills components: Speaking, Listening, Writing, Reading, and pass with Merit (B1+), to enter the SQA Advanced Diploma (China) programme. You can also book a higher test level (e.g. B2) if you would like to achieve a higher English language qualification. Your results will be available in only 3-5 days*
